

Suloway & Hollis

P.L.L.C.
COUNSELORS AT LAW

Martin L. Gross, formerly a senior member, now serves as Senior Counsel to the Firm and its clients. He has concentrated his practice in appellate litigation, administrative law, insurance, health care, public utilities and legislative advocacy, devoting a substantial portion of his practice to drafting complex legislation and managing the legislative process.

Mr. Gross chaired the New Hampshire Supreme Court's Board of Bar Examiners for 23 years and has chaired the Advisory Committee for the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. He represented the New Hampshire Supreme Court in a case before the U.S. Supreme Court. He is a member of the American Academy of Appellate Lawyers, is AV rated in Martindale-Hubbell and is listed in New England Super Lawyers.

Mr. Gross has assisted three New Hampshire Governors in various capacities, was Mayor of Concord, N.H. for three terms and was twice elected to New Hampshire's Constitutional Convention. He currently chairs the Legislative Ethics Committee of the New Hampshire General Court, and serves on the City of Concord's Planning Board.

Mr. Gross has chaired the boards of Capital Region Health Care Corporation - Concord Hospital, New Hampshire Charitable Foundation, New Hampshire Public Radio, the Steering Committee for Capitol Center for the Arts, and the Advisory Committee for the State of New Hampshire's Health Care Fund. He is Chair emeritus of the New Hampshire Center for Public Policy Studies, and currently chairs the Conservation Law Foundation's New Hampshire State Board and the Advisory Committee on Community Health Centers. He also is a member of the board of trustees of Capitol Center for the Arts. He has been accorded honorary membership in the New Hampshire Medical Society and the New Hampshire chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Mr. Gross received both his law degree and undergraduate degree from Harvard. He served as Law Clerk to the United States District Judge for the District of New Hampshire, before joining the Firm in 1965.

